

Tears

A life filled with beauty, a life filled with despair
My son, my son please choose with care.

Your angry inside, I can feel your pain,
am I the cause? Let me try again.

My heart is breaking; I love you so much,
you turn away refuse my touch.

My arms are empty; let me hold you near,
I love you Mum I want to hear

My mind is confused, I don't know why
The bond we had, what made it die?

There is nothing in this world we can't overcome,
Don't leave me, stay with me, my beautiful Son.

I named you well; you're exploring the skies
My little seagull, be careful, be wise.

Your family is waiting you're not alone
We are watching and praying, come home, come home.
